

How to Register at Letterman's Digital Vault

Easy as 1,2,3...

1. Visit www.lettermansdigitalvault.com and click on the "public planroom" icon.
2. Click the "register now" button and supply your basic contact information, including a valid email address.
3. Upon submitting your information, you will immediately be sent an automatically generated username and password. Login using the supplied information and you're ready to browse projects and view, order, or download documents! Edit your personal information to customize your username and password if you wish.

Note: If you received an Invitation to Bid that already includes a username and password, click on the "private planroom" icon and login. Edit your personal information to customize your username and password if you wish.
